

The interference that results from this proposed service, as documented by the ARRL, is not acceptable. Serious loss of essential HF communications will result.